REFRESHMENT SCHEDULE

There is a new schedule found in the back of the bulletin. I went back and scheduled by alphabet, I guess I was supposed to do it that way to begin with, so there isn't that much confusion.

CORRECTIONS

In the last bulletin it has a date of May 14th - 16th for the State Spring Campout. This is incorrect.
The dates are May 21st - 23rd.

There is also a new address for Edna and Clare Fairbairn, this is their summer address beginning in May; The Florida address is for their winter escape.

BEST WISHES

The Reitzma's have given notification they will no longer be members of our club. I know they will be missed by all of us. Good luck and best wishes to all your future endeavors

WAYNE COUNTY MIXER

That Friday I think everyone thought it was going to be an actual cruise weekend. There was water every where. But this was only that day, the rest of the weekend turned out to be beautifully warm and sunny which helped dry up most of the water. It seemed a lot of people are not put off of a little water, we even had a Boy Scout Troop staying the weekend in their tents. (I believe we still remember wet weekends in our own tents.) Friday night was check in time and then bingo later in the hospitality building.
Saturday was started with a great breakfast served hot from the ovens or I should say rosters.

Then it was time for the games to begin. There was lifesaving drills (I don't think everyone made it) and relay races while carrying a life jacket and inner tube to mention a few. During the day everyone had to build a boat that was able to float in a specific sized tube, it could have been built from anything you could imagine and some definitely were. Craft sales were next then the penny auction. I almost forgot about the great lunch that was served before the auction.
All rows of the tables were filled to the limits this year. It was then time to get ready for dinner.
Meatballs and noodles. After cleaning things up the music started for the balance of the night.
There was dancing and a few card games going on thru out the night as the raffle ticket numbers were drawn for one of the many prizes that were given away. Sunday we all awoke to a beautiful day with breakfast and conversation before packing up and heading for home.
If I'm correct every quest that came that weekend joined F.C.R.V. We also had our Canadian friends again this year who did a great job of decorating there rig to look like a cruise ship.
It even had smoke stacks on top. it was also my understanding they drove it thru customs that way.
I believe a THANK - YOU goes out to all the people who helped turn it into a fun filled camping event.
